However, many cemeteries require that you have a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a burial "vault" or a "grave box" will satisfy these requirements.

History

Hamilton's Funeral and After Life Services

Our funeral home began before 1900 under the name of R. R. McBride Funeral Home located at East 6th and Grand Avenue. In 1910, the home was moved to 605 E. Locust where Selover, Hamilton and Knight worked together for a time. In 1925, Powers-Hamilton Funeral Home was established and soon moved to 520 East 9th Street. Lee Hamilton became the only owner and changed the name to Hamilton's Funeral Home. About 1940, Ira Moller and Ardis Peterson became associated as partners with Hamilton. Lee Hamilton died in 1956. The Moller and Peterson families remain as the current owners.

In 1969, we moved to our present location at 605 Lyon Street. In 1976, we purchased the Moffitt Funeral Homes in Altoona and Mitchellville, Iowa, now known as Altoona Funeral Home and Mitchellville Funeral Home. In 1979, we purchased the Dunn's Funeral Home on Southwest 9th Street, now known as Southtown Funeral Home. Hamilton's built a new funeral home and crematory in 1987, Hamilton's near Highland Memory Gardens. The latest addition to the Hamilton's family opened in 2005, Hamilton's on Westown Parkway in West Des Moines. The Hamilton's facilities are known as Hamilton's Funeral and After Life Services, while each funeral home retains its individual name.
